MOTION FOR SANCTIONS

Comes now the United States Trustee for Region Four and moves this court pursuant to §§ 105, 109(g), 349 and 1307 of the Bankruptcy Code to dismiss this case and to sanction the debtor, and in support thereof, the United States Trustee states as follows:

1. This case was commenced by the filing of a voluntary petition pursuant to Chapter 13 of Title 11 on or about February 10, 2025 by Christopher Baker (Baker or debtor).

2. Prior to this bankruptcy filing, the debtor filed a voluntary petition pursuant to Chapter 13 of Title 11 on October 8, 2024. The case was assigned Number 24-61116. On November 12, 2024, this case was dismissed as a result of the debtor's failure to comply with court order to file the required statement and schedules. The debtor failed to pay the required second and third installments of the chapter 13 filing fee.

3. Prior to this bankruptcy filing, the debtor filed a voluntary petition pursuant to Chapter 13 of Title 11 on June 25, 2024. The case was assigned Number 24-60675. On July 16, 2024, this case was dismissed as a result of the debtor's failure to comply with court order to file the required statement and schedules. The debtor failed to pay the required second and third installments of the chapter 13 filing fee.

4. These multiple filings and the debtor's disregard of the duties and obligations imposed upon him by the United States Bankruptcy Code, indicate that the current filing, at least, was made with bad faith, and is an abuse of the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. "...[B]ankruptcy courts have traditionally drawn upon their powers of equity to prevent abuse of the bankruptcy process and to ensure that a "case be commenced in 'good faith' to reflect the intended policies of the Code." 2 L. King, Collier on Bankruptcy § 301.05[1], at 301–5 to 301–7 (1996). Such a good faith requirement:

prevents abuse of the bankruptcy process by debtors whose overriding motive is to delay creditors without benefiting them in any way or to achieve reprehensible purposes. Moreover, a good faith standard protects the jurisdictional integrity of the bankruptcy courts by rendering their powerful equitable weapons (i.e., avoidance of liens, discharge of debts, marshalling and turnover of assets) available only to those debtors and creditors with “clean hands.” In re Kestell, 99 F. 3d 147, 147 (4th Cir. 1996) (citing In re Little Creek Development Co., 779 F.2d 1068, 1072 (5th Cir.1986)).

5. The debtor has continuously abused the bankruptcy system.

6. That said serial filings are in bad faith and are burdensome to the Court, creditors, the Clerk of U.S. Bankruptcy Court, the trustees and others.

WHEREFORE, the United States Trustee requests that this Court order the following relief:

1. That this case be dismissed.

2. That the debtor be prohibited from filing any bankruptcy petition for a period of 365 days from the date of the Order dismissing this case.

3. That all future filings be contingent upon the payment of unpaid filing fees owed to the United States Bankruptcy Court.

4. The United States Trustee requests such other relief as the Court may deem just.
